Season & Individual Ticket Sales

Season Ticket Renewal

Now - April 8th: Welcome to the 2005 Sandy City Amphitheater Season of Hot Music/Cool Nights. We look forward to presenting a season full of exceptional entertainment with something everyone can enjoy.

You continue to have the choice of selecting the full season of eight shows, or dividing the season in half. Remember, the musicals play on multiple nights, but each has a specific season night. If you wish to attend a performance other than the season night you can exchange your season ticket for a general admission ticket for the night of your choice.

If you are a current season ticket holder in either Premium or Priority seating, you can renew your season tickets starting today until April 8th. You cannot add or change seats at this time. If you do not renew by April 8th your seats will be available for others to purchase. Lawn subscribers can renew at any time.

Season Subscribers and Special Events

Until April 8th, all subscribers can purchase tickets to any of the Special Events without paying a service fee; however, once tickets go on sale to the general public, subscribers will pay the service fee as well. Your Season seats cannot be guaranteed for the Special Events so just pick the section you want to sit in and the best available seats will be reserved for you by the Box Office. First come first served. For help with your selection you can call 568-ARTS (2787) or come into Sandy City Hall room 310.

Add or Upgrade

April 11th - April 29th: Current Season ticket holders can upgrade, add, or change their seating according to what is available. To make any changes, call 568-ARTS (2787) and talk with one of our friendly Box Office representatives.

Special Events Tickets

April 11th: Tickets to all Special Events will go on sale to the general public. Tickets will be available on line at www.sandy.utah.gov, by calling 568-ARTS (2787), at any SmithsTix outlet or Sandy City Hall room 310.

Individual Tickets and New Season Packages

May 2nd: Individual tickets to all events are on sale to the general public and will be available on line at www.sandy.utah.gov, by calling 568-ARTS (2787), at any SmithsTix outlet or Sandy City Hall room 310. Any remaining Season Tickets also go on sale. To order Season tickets please return the attached order form or come to Sandy City Hall room 310.

Hot Music

Billy Dean - June 4

Once named country music's New Male Vocalist, veteran country singer Billy Dean arrives at the Sandy Amphitheater to the delight of country music fans across the valley. Now, with nearly two decades of hits like, "Billy the Kid," "We Just Disagree," and "Only Here for a Little While," Dean is back on the charts with his newest hit, "Let Them be Little," the title track to his brand new album. Sit back and enjoy country music at its best.

Kansas - July 9

Yes, Kansas! With an innovative sound (a violin in a rock band?) and original songs, this legendary rock group is still in the forefront of classic rock. No other band comes close to their success with hits including, "Carry on Wayward Son," "Dust in the Wind" and "Point of Know Return." Don't miss this original 70s rock band.

Miranda Lambert - July 15

Rising country music star Miranda Lambert has been singing most of her young life in TV commercials, movies and on the nationally televised talent show "Nashville Star." A regular on the Country Music Charts, Lambert comes to the Sandy Amphitheater on the heels of her nationwide CD release of "Kerosene." Don't miss a night of fresh, rousing, hard driving music combined with the sweet, tender and wistful sounds of hot country music as only Lambert can deliver.

Joseph & The Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat - Aug. 20

Full schedule August 19 - 27

Utah's favorite theater experience, Joseph & the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat will burst on the stage with all the fun, emotion and comedy you've come to expect. Produced by the Sandy Arts Guild, Joseph will delight the entire family.

Cool Nights

Lovin' Spoonful - July 16

Beginning in 1965 with seven straight top ten singles, including the number one all time top summer song "Summer in the City" and the definitive ode to young love, "Do You Believe in Magic?" The music of the Lovin' Spoonful is not only popular on the radio but also in countless movies and TV commercials, making it as well-known today to many young people as it is to the baby boomers who grew up with it.

Gary Puckett - August 6

Both as soloist and with The Union Gap, Gary Puckett has sold over 25 million records and is one of the most acclaimed entertainers of a generation, continuing to sell out concerts nationwide. It will be an evening of cool music when Gary Puckett hits the Amphitheater stage with "Woman, Woman," "Over You," "Home" and many more.

Bill Haley's Comets - September 10

In the 1950s, Drive-Inns, Car Hops, and Bill Haley's Comets had teenagers all across the country bopping to the new sound of rock and roll. Hear unforgettable hits like, "Shake Rattle and Roll," "Crazy Man Crazy," and their all time biggest song, and theme from the hit television show "Happy Days," "Rock Around the Clock." With their original costumes, instruments and goodvibe music, Bill Haley's Comets will carry you back to the 1950s.

The Pirates of Penzance - June 25

Full schedule June 24 - July 2

Arguably the most popular Gilbert & Sullivan piece, The Pirates of Penzance comes to life on the Amphitheater stage. This fast-paced hilarious romp, produced by the Sandy Arts Guild is great fun for everyone. So be sure to come early and come often.

The Beach Boys

June 9

The music of The Beach Boys is the sound track of summer! "Surfin' U.S.A.," "Wouldn't It Be Nice," "Help Me Rhonda," "California Girls" and their biggest hit "Kokomo" is just a hint of the greatest surfing songs ever written. Join with Bruce Johnston and Mike Love and ride the waves of good vibrations as the Sandy Amphitheater presents one of the most popular bands in rock history.
